

MacMurray College's Transfer Guide
For Lincoln College Students

Lincoln College credits are fully transferable to MacMurray College, except for certain vocational and activity courses. Students will receive transfer credit, up to 60 hours, for courses successfully taken with grades of C– or better.

MacMurray participates in the Illinois Articulation Initiative (IAI). Therefore:

Students who have completed the Illinois General Education Core Curriculum at Lincoln College will be considered to have satisfied all MacMurray General Education course requirements, except for the upper-division Issues of Community and Conflict courses and Cultural Studies 300.

In addition, students who earn an Associate in Arts or Associate in Science degree will be granted 60 transfer credits (junior standing) at MacMurray.

If students have not completed the entire General Education Core Curriculum, the following courses will satisfy the individual general education requirements at MacMurray.
