MacMurray holds program on “Spiritual Songs” to celebrate Black History Month

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. – MacMurray College Black Student Union and the Office of Religious Life will host a program on “Spiritual Songs” by Dr. Naima Johnston in celebration of Black History Month on Monday, February 1, 2010, at 7:00 p.m., in the Gamble Campus Center (corner of Lurton Street and Hardin Ave).

“Through her multimedia exploration of the history of the Negro spiritual, Dr. Johnston shows us the incredible resilience and rich creativity of an oppressed people,” said MacMurray’s Chaplain, Kate Herring.

The event is free and open to the public. For more information, you may call Kate Herring at 217-479-7123.
