Kerry Hahn named the new Advisor/Recruiter for the Adult Degree Completion Program at MacMurray

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. – MacMurray College would like to announce Kerry Hahn, as the Advisor/Recruiter for the Adult Degree Completion Program (ADC).

Hahn has been teaching both Adult Degree and traditional courses for seven years and has been with MacMurray since 2006. At MacMurray she is also the Theatre Instructor and Theatre Production Coordinator. Previous professional experience includes 20 years in management in the entertainment and personnel industries.

“Nontraditional adult learners who work full-time will find that MacMurray’s Adult Degree Completion program in Organizational Leadership accommodates their busy lives,” says Ms. Hahn. “Military veterans, single parents, and displaced workers will also enjoy the prospect of earning a Bachelor of Science degree in two years without having to follow the traditional college schedule. Our website lays out the admission criteria in three short paragraphs. Once you make your decision to come to Mac, you can apply right online.”

For more information, contact Kerry Hahn by email on kerry.hahn@mac.edu or by calling 217- 479-7191. Read more about the Adult Degree Completion program on www.mac.edu/academics/adc.
