Local bands headline MacMurray music festival

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. – The “MacAppalooza” music festival this weekend will showcase such local bands as Jeff Davidsmeyer and Friends, the Rob Killam Trio, performers from Tapestry, and a group of new bands that include MacMurray students.

“MacAppalooza,” is a fundraiser to help the MacMurray Choir take a trip to New York City in June, when the choir has been invited to perform at Carnegie Hall.

MacAppalooza begins 5:30 p.m. Friday, March 19 until 9:30 p.m. and resumes 1 p.m. Saturday, March 20 until 9:30 p.m. All performances will be at MacMurray’s Annie Merner Chapel on the northeast corner of College Avenue and Clay Street in Jacksonville.

The cost is $5 for MacMurray and Illinois College students, $10 for adults, and children younger than 5 years old are free. Families of three or more will cost no more than $15. Concessions will be available.
