MacMurray students to hold reception for ‘Nobody’s Perfect’
*Play based on book by Marlee Matlin to be held at UIS

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. – A reception for the cast of “Nobody’s Perfect,” a play based on a children’s book by Marlee Matlin, will be held 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. March 21 at the lower level of the Education Complex on the MacMurray College campus. The public is welcome.

The reception is sponsored by Interpreters and Deaf Educators Association chapter at MacMurray in conjunction with the Illinois School for the Deaf.

“Nobodys Perfect” is being performed at the Sangamon Auditorium at the University of Illinois at Springfield 10 a.m. March 22 by The Kennedy Center Theater for Young Audiences on Tour. The play, intended for elementary students, is based on the children’s book of the same name written by Academy Award winner Marlee Matlin.

The reception at MacMurray will include a presentation as well as refreshments. It will be held at the Atrium in the lower level of the Education Complex, which is on the east side of campus and faces Hardin Avenue in Jacksonville.
