Scholarship and Grants – Western Illinois University will offer MacMurray College students the following scholarships or grants to apply toward anticipated costs.

1. MacMurray College students will be awarded scholarships according to the Fall 2020 Western Illinois University Scholarship guidelines.
2. 1. Transfer Commitment Scholarship- This scholarship is for transferring students with 24 earned credit hours or more and a 2.5 Cumulative GPA. This scholarship is renewable for up to 3 years or until the completion of the bachelor's degree whichever occurs first. Students must be continuously enrolled and be in good academic standing each semester for the scholarship to be renewed each year.
3. MacMurray College students can apply for additional scholarships for Fall 2020. Access to this information on scholarships and ways to apply are listed at wiu.edu/scholarships.

4. Students are encouraged to file the Free Application for Student Aid (FAFSA) to see what other grants may be available to them. Scholarships that are not automatic awards and need to be applied for have a May 1st scholarship deadline.

In addition to the agreement and Exhibits A and B. We anticipate/request that Western Illinois University submit both a "Convert" option as well as a "Teach Out" option for each academic major outlining specific coursework and degree program requirements of Western Illinois University and the corresponding MacMurray College coursework to be accepted in its place.
